43rd Barossa Wine Show 2019

Wines of Provenance Results

The provenance class was a great show case of the diversity of Barossa wines, and in many cases showed the ability of the wines to look bright and youthful as well as graceful with age. There were some great individual wines and many pairs that showed the lineage and relationship that judges were looking for. There were also some lovely mature wines, but the real key to success in this class is mounting a compelling case across all three wines. The winning entries delivered that in spades, a strong thread of quality and character coming through at every stage of the wine's evolution. Louisa Rose, Andrew Wigan, Phil Reedman & Katie Spain

*Some fragrant and perfumed Shiraz wines amongst some more classic regional styles, showing the ever-expanding diversity this region has to offer. Unexpectedly there was a disappointing number of microbial wines in the class. Would be good if this were not the case.

Generally a good group of wines showing freshness, contained fruit and tannin with balance. Low rate of technical faults which is pleasing to see. However oak-dominating fruit is a sign winemakers are not confident in the quality of their fruit. Great expression of site and region would come from letting the fruit speak as well.

A very large class with some real beauty at the top end, fresh, intense, aromatic fruit, round warm and earthy. Some wines exhibited sweet and sour characters. A bit of Brett creeping in, overall oak use has moderated, watch char levels ensuring they match the weight of fruit. 15's were quite strong as a sub-bracket.
