Wine of Provenance Results

---

The window into the long term thinking of a producer - their focus on a wine style, ageability, adapting to seasons and climate change and flow of winemakers or sites across at least a decade. Despite these variables, some producers really do shine as examples of quality and complete confidence in how they express their sites, through changes in fashion and innovation too. The careful selection of vintages to highlight their best, to show the strength of constant quality of house style or vineyard site. The top examples speak of the Barossa in style, quality and pride of place. A reminder too all that this is a long game of passionate commitment.

Comments: Some very strong wines, Shiraz seems to have performed well in 2019. Oak handling was seen to have been well managed in most wines and the top wine shone through as having regional intensity and depth whilst maintaining vitality.
A great class to judge.

Class 11

Dry Shiraz, Vintage 2018 and older

Judges: Adam Wadewitz, Ian Hongell, Tim Dolan, Rebecca Willson, Andre Bondar, Katie Spain, Henry Slattery, Jessey McGowen, Janelle Badrice, Ben Wilcox

Comments: Clearly 2018 was a strong year with lots of gold. A mixed class of fortune - top wines were a great expression of place and season, lesser wines lacked balance, freshness and were clouded with overt oak.
