Wine of Provenance Results

COMMENTS:

White - We were able to narrow the choice to three sets of Riesling, though special mention to a very strong set of Fiano's that really excited the judges at quality and how they were ageing.

Two sets were expressions of the racy acidity and length - very classic and well appreciated. Interestingly the final selection was to an older bracket with the three wines displaying texture, flavour, juiciness and acid line - more complex mouthfeel.

Red - Consistency across three vintages was more challenging than with the whites. In some cases this is a result of fashion/style - eg. Grenache. In some cases the best wines were the younger versions, showing beautiful handling of fruit and style. Ultimately the judges narrowed it down to two sets of Shiraz, one set of Cabernet/Shiraz and a set of Cabernet.

The Cabernet/Shiraz was strongly supported - it would be great to see more than one entry of this important Australian classic the Barossa does so well. The two brackets of Shiraz were very close, the top winning fruit for purity and great quality of the 2006, the runner up structurally was very consistent.

Class 01

Dry Riesling, Vintage 2022

Judges: PJ Charteris, Ian Hongell, Tim Dolan, Jane Skilton, Rebecca Willson, Kate Hongell, Nic Schirripa, Alexandra Wardlaw, Jessey McGowen, Merrick Watts

Comments: Judges were concerned that yeast/ferment characters detracted from many wines. Best wines showed great line of acidity and purity of fruit from careful handling.

Class 04

Dry Chardonnay, (any vintage)

Judges: Rob Diletti, Emma Norbiato, Mark Pygott, Penny Vine, Brett Smith

Comments: Small class with a range of quality, obtaining flavour without adversely affecting palate structure, is clearly the challenge. Top wines managed to get that balance.

Rosé, any style, any variety, (any vintage)

Judges: PJ Charteris, Tim Dolan, Jane Skilton, Nic Schirripa, Alexandra WardlawComments: Quite an average bracket with a lot of acid focus making for taut and strung out wines. There are some good examples showing some considered textural drive. However there needs to be deeper thought here to bring out some regional definition.
