PET-FRIENDLY ADVENTURES IN BAROSSA: A GUIDE TO DOG-FRIENDLY WINERIES, EATERIES, AND ACTIVITIES

Bringing your best friend on your Barossa adventure? Whether you're staying in a cottage, motel, or caravan park, there are plenty of doggo-friendly spots to enjoy with your little (or big) mate.

Grab your leash, pack some treats, it's time to explore Barossa.

DAY 1

START YOUR DAY OFF RIGHT

With a visit to St Hallett, one of Barossa's finest wineries. But wait, before you raise your glass, make sure your four-legged companion is welcome too! St Hallett is one of several wineries in the area that happily welcomes dogs, so you can sip on some award-winning wines while your furry friend sniffs around the vineyards.

NEED A COFFEE OR A PUP CUP?

Pop in to Fleur Social for a latte then take a wander through the gorgeous Barossa Bushgardens. With its stunning native flora and fauna, this place is a haven for nature lovers and their pets.

FOR LUNCH OR DINNER

Head over to Vino Lokal, where you can enjoy delicious local cuisine in a relaxed atmosphere. Their outdoor dining area offers plenty of space for your pooch, so you can dine al fresco with your furry companion by your side.

WHEN DID YOU LAST MEET YOUR NEW BEST FRIEND?

Explore the best of Barossa with your furry friend! Discover pet-friendly wineries like St Hallett and Edenmae, dine at dog-friendly spots like Vino Lokal, and enjoy nature walks at Barossa Bushgardens. Ideal for couples and groups seeking relaxation and local experiences.

DAY 2

EXPLORE

On day two of your Barossa adventure, why not explore some more dog-friendly wineries? Edenmae and Levrier are both great options, offering exquisite wines and welcoming atmospheres for both humans and canines alike.

STROLL

After a morning of wine tasting, take a leisurely stroll through the picturesque streets of Tanunda. Stop by Brothers at War laneway for some pre-dinner drinks and enjoy the laid-back vibe of this local hotspot.

ALFRESCO

For your final meal in Barossa, treat yourself and your furry friend to a delicious dinner at one of the many pet-friendly restaurants in the area. With its diverse culinary scene, and alfresco dining focus you're sure to find something that tickles your taste buds and satisfies your hunger.
